

A scatter plot showing the distribution of a metric (y-axis, 0 to 1.0) across nucleotide positions (x-axis, 0 to 200) for three conditions: Control (green), 100% (orange), and 200% (red). The 200% condition shows a sharp peak at position 150, while the other two conditions show more distributed patterns.